Brighter Futures

FOR NATIVE AMERICAN BOYS & GIRLS

For over 100 years, St. Labre Indian School has been lifting Native American children out of poverty. By combining education, Native American culture, and spirituality, students are achieving at a higher level, setting them up for a Brighter Future.

In a new PSA from St. Labre Indian School, Brighter Future, your viewers will see how the school helps their students learn and thrive while receiving a quality education and celebrating their culture. Success is in the results - 81% of St. Labre graduates go on to attend college.

Please air St. Labre's new PSA. Your support could help open the door to a Brighter Future for a Native American child in your community.
