

Ken Sutcliffe

Veteran, Fire Fighter & MDA Advocate

Ken Sutcliffe dedicated his career to saving lives as a U.S. Army veteran and as a fire fighter. He never thought that one day he'd be fighting for his own.

In Answering the Call, a new PSA from the Muscular Dystrophy Association, (MDA), you will meet Ken who was diagnosed with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), also known as Lou Gehrig's disease. Thanks to MDA, he and many others like him are receiving the treatment and care that they need to live longer and love stronger.

Air Answering the Call today. When you do you are helping MDA lead the way in accelerating research and advancing care in your local community.
