

ACLU

With increased threats to our rights and freedoms, the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) remains unwavering in its mission to defend those rights. The Get Past Us PSA is a powerful reminder that the ACLU will stand as a barrier against efforts to roll back hard-won freedoms.

From reuniting separated families to challenging bans on essential healthcare, the ACLU has fought, and won, in the courts and across the country. Get Past Us highlights the fact that the ACLU stands ready to step in when there's any attempt to take away our rights.

Share Get Past Us with your viewers to amplify the ACLU's message and commitment to defending our rights in courts, state legislatures, and communities nationwide.
