

For The Last 80 Years, Paralyzed Veterans of America has been rewriting the story of accessibility, independence, and Veteran empowerment. Through groundbreaking research, advocacy, and disability civil rights leadership, PVA continues to be a force for Veterans with spinal cord injuries and diseases, like MS and ALS, and all people with disabilities.

The Last 80 Years radio PSA shines a light on the incredible impact PVA has made. From the Americans with Disabilities Act to pioneering wheelchair basketball and driving medical breakthroughs, PVA enables Veterans to regain their independence and lead full and productive lives.

Join the movement and inspire your audience to learn more and support PVA's work that is changing lives every day. Air The Last 80 Years today and share PVA's legacy of progress while highlighting the people who make it possible.
