

Children International is a global nonprofit organization dedicated to providing essential support and resources to children in need around the world. The new Children International public service campaign “You are My Sunshine”, pairs the iconic song with an illustration of the vital resources and opportunities provided to the children they serve.

Children International operates centers globally, ensuring children have access to educational support, healthcare services, and technical job training. Through their incredible work, children can thrive and create lasting change within their communities, breaking the cycle of poverty.

Please help Children International raise awareness of their mission by placing this PSA into your airtime rotation. Your support in amplifying their message will make a significant difference in the lives of countless children worldwide.
