

This summer, the Paris Games will bring us together to celebrate our Nation's athletes. From the practice fields in our towns to The Podium in Paris, the U.S. Center for SafeSport has continued to educate and empower athletes, parents, coaches and others to put an end to abuse in sport.

In the radio PSA, The Podium in Paris, the U.S. Center for SafeSport celebrates the journey of all athletes, not just the medals they win. For the Paris Games and beyond, the U.S. Center for SafeSport honors the sacrifices, resilience and unwavering passion of athletes all around the world.

Air The Podium in Paris from the U.S. Center for SafeSport to join the movement in creating a safer stage for athletes in all levels of competition and end abuse in sport.
